Bid for CSSC Representative Event funding

5KSC/CSAA entry in the Scottish Islands Peaks Race 2012 (SIPR2012)

Race information available at <http://www.scottishislandspeaksrace.com/>

Dates

The SIPR2012 starts at noon on Friday 18 May 2012. The duration of the race depends upon the weather as well as the abilities of the entrants but usually takes 2 - 3 days to complete.

The event

This race is for teams of Sailors and Fell Runners. The Race starts in Oban with a short hill run, then a Sail to Salen on Mull, a run over Ben More, a sail to Craighouse on Jura, run the Paps, a sail to Arran, run Goat Fell, then a sail to finish in Troon.

The competitors

The team will consist of 5 (2 runners and 3 sailors). A standby crew of three sailors and a reserve is available from 5KSC. CSAA have international level fell runners and have offered to run selection as required.

The competition

It is usual for about 50 world class teams to enter the SIPR. Teams from the UK usually include entries from the armed services and the police.

Cost

5KSC will make Artful Dodger available for the race. The charter period will be noon Wednesday 16 May 2012 until noon Wednesday 23 May 2012. The charter fee will be the weekly charter fee for the yacht - currently £1085.

Assistance is sought for the cost of entry, i.e.

£1085 charter fee

£200 race entry fee

£300 towards the travel costs for 5 competitors

£60 towards subsistence.

Bid made for CSSC funding of a total of £1645.
